In regard to:

- 13. Should some form of lifetime income distribution option be required for defined contribution plans (in addition to money purchase pension plans)? If so, should that option be the default distribution option, and should it apply to the entire account balance? To what extent would such a requirement encourage or discourage plan sponsorship?

My answer is NO! Keep your hand OFF my retirement! The government has no business trying to control or dip into the hard earned money of the American Tax payer! You've already messed up Social Security...stay FAR AWAY from my other plans!
